

Jessica Simpson pops into Jurlique's LA store to pick up her fave products

GREENEST

TOP 10

1

HIGH PERFORMANCE

Long before it was cool to be green, Jurlique began creating beauty potions biodynamically from its farm in South Australia. Twenty years on, it's better than ever! You don't have to sacrifice results with Jurlique – its formulas are pure but potent. This lotion is a winner for calming redness and evening out skin tone.

PURE ENOUGH TO EAT

What started out as a home-based hobby for Gold Coast mum-of-three Narelle Chenery went on to become the first certified organic skin care company in the world! Miessence has since branched out into cosmetics, hair care and even household cleaning products. It doesn't get any purer than this.

3

ECO-CHIC

Being eco-friendly and stylish doesn't always go hand in hand, but Aussie brand Pod Puraceuticals has managed to pull it off. Like all its products, this convincing fake tan comes sleekly packaged in 100 per cent recycled materials, is made using renewable energy and contains only ingredients that are good for you.

ONE FOR THE FAMILY

Established in 1948 by a third-generation soap maker, Dr Bronner's has evolved into a socially and environmentally conscious body care brand. Using certified organic and fair trade ingredients, it still produces amazing soaps, as well as a range of other affordable, all-natural hair and body products.

7

GENTLE & EFFECTIVE

With ingredients sourced from its own biodynamic gardens and fair trade partners around the world, Weleda is known for its range of herbal skin care and homeopathic medicines. Its aluminium-free deodorant is one of the best we've tried – we also love the wild rose body products.

A-LIST FAVE

Perhaps the original biodynamic beauty company, Dr Hauschka takes its holistic approach to skin care very seriously. Plants are hand-harvested at sunrise, washed and hand-chopped before being turned into preservative-free potions loved by the likes of Madonna, Julia Roberts and Jade Jagger. If you've never tried this range, give it a go.
